

Quattro

Selle Français, Chestnut, Born 1990 16.3 hands

"The All-Rounder" was the title he was given in the number one German horse magazine. Successful in international show jumping all the way to World Cup competitions with Gilbert Böckmann, he also sires winners in dressage, show jumping and eventing tests.

His son Quando Quando, who wins dressage up to Grand Prix level, is also the sire of the Champion Stallion at the licensing in Redefin 2007, and is the Grand sire of the sensational Quarterback. He is also sire of Grand Prix winner Quantum Tyme under Evi Strasser.

Oliver Q participated in the Olympic Game in Athens 2004, Quanta Costa and Don Diego are internationally successful under Rolf Göran Bengtsson and Quick Silber was the 2005 World Champion of five year old jumpers in Lanaken, Belgium. Quinaro took bronze at the Bundeschampionat in the class for five years old jumpers under Oliber Ross.

Last not least, Quattro is also the sire of the current World Champion in eventing that took place in Le lion d'Angers, France. Quite Easy, whose dam is by the Thoroughbred stallion Akitos, won the gold medal under his breeder and rider Frank Ostholt.

Licensed for Holstein, Oldenburg, Westphalia, Rheinland, KWPN, Mecklenburg-Vorpommern, Springpferdezuchtverband Oldenburg-International, and France

Oredo de Paulstra	Galoubet	Almé Z
		Vit
Une Americaine	Lacq	Furioso xx
		Quella de Paulstra
	Pandore du Thot	Turner xx
		Favorite I
	Hispana	Uriel
		Belle Creole